Graduate Student Olive Harvest Competition November 16, 2012

Get your team to pick the most olives and win a 12-course gourmet dinner!

Rules:

- 1) Each team may be comprised of no more than 12 Grad Students.
- 2) The team that picks the most olives by weight will be the winner.
- 3) Olives will be weighed when they are brought to the weigh station and the weights will be recorded on each team's sheet. Team members must be sure to tell us which team their olives are for.
- 4) The prize will be a 12-course gourmet dinner for you and your team members prepared by Tom Mannion, his cooking class assistants, and volunteer alums. The dinner will be for a maximum of 12 grad students. The team leader will need to contact Denise Okamoto in the Student Activities and Programs Office (denise@caltech.edu) to schedule the dinner if your team is the winner.
- 5) Registration forms can be submitted to Denise Okamoto (Room 165 Center for Student Services Building) prior to November 9, or at the Check-in table on Olive Harvest day.
